BUTCHERWATCH U.K. EMERGENCY UPDATE!

Since my 'Butcherwatch' feature in 'Oink!' 14, rogue rind-choppers have been spotted all over the country by my piggy pals! Here are just a few of the reports I've received...

Gareth Humphreys of Glamorgan spotted Jerry 'The Cleaver' at a local pig-fair. (Send your address carefully)

David Hailwood of Hastings saw Eric 'Razors' McTiggle looking at comics in a newsagent's—trying to find the 'Oink!' address! ULP! But fear not, pig-pals! Ace Butcher-buster Banx is hard at work tracking down these rogues, and will present a report next issue. Not that it'll be much comfort to this next writer...

I've found Jimmy 'Cleaver' Smith's hideout on Brighton Beach—and I found a sinister collection of knives and cleavers. I found a note saying he was heading North again, though I believe... Aaah! Help! He's got me!—

Me and m pals went kite-flying on a windy day. Unfortunately, Basher Bates was there with his remote-controlled model airplane...

Huff! Huff!

I went home and built a bigger and better kite. Two hours later, it was finished...

...Which he deliberately yoozed to sabotage my kite!

We went back to the park. Basher was still there, plotting more tricks, no doubt...

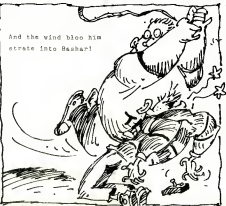

I calculated the wind-speed and dyreckshun carefullie...

Then I gave Tubby the kite to launch...

And the wind blew him straight into Basher!

As I planned, the big kite lifted Tubby right off the ground...

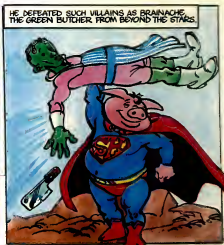

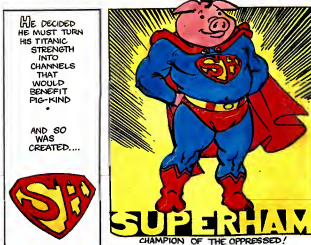

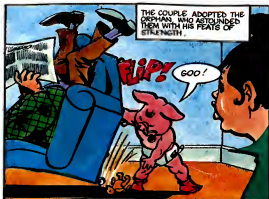

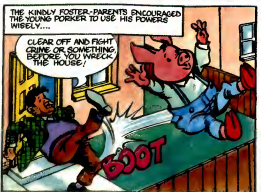

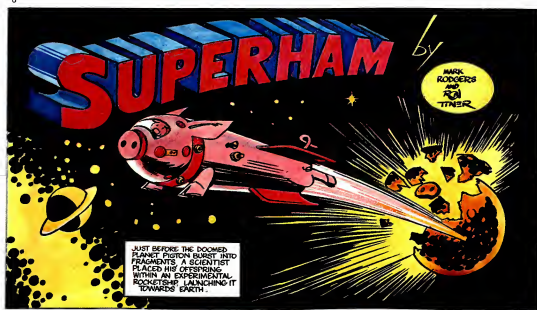

I bought Tubby a big ice-cream for helping with my plan...

"CLEVER MUMMY"UNCLE

READING COURSE

PART ONE

Janice and John and the parachute jump

Once upon a time, a lady of Avon saw a copy of issue Number 7 of OINK! . . . and she was not amused. She complained to The Press Council that the "Janice and John" story disregarded mother-family relationships.

1. Janice and John have a brave daddy. He is going up in an aeroplane.

2. He is doing a parachute jump. "Here he comes," cries mummy.

3. Janice and John wave to daddy. Daddy waves back.

4. Daddy waves and waves as he gets closer and closer.

5. "My parachute won't open!" cries daddy. Oh dear.

6. Mummy can hardly look. Janice and John have broken daddy's fall.

7. See mummy hide the parachute before the ambulance comes. Mummy had sabotaged it earlier.

8. See mummy enjoy herself while her soppy family are in the hospital. Clever mummy!

"I second that!" voiced Mary Lighthouse (critic). AND THAT IS PRECISELY HOW MANY PEOPLE OBJECTED . . . TWO!

It was also claimed that OINK! was helping to prepare the ground for hooliganism, vandalism and indiscipline behaviour.

"Well, it ain't done me no good!" says Tom Thug. "I've been in in the comic since it started, tryin' me best to BE an 'ooligan, vandal and a bad boy — and I ain't been successful yet!"

The Council's adjudication was:

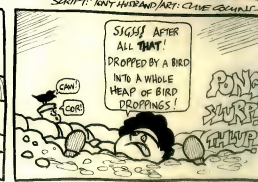

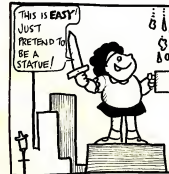

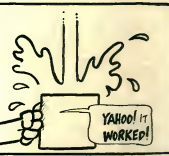

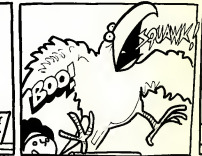

"The cartoon complained of was a presumably deliberately tasteless parody of the kind of picture strip designed for young children but The Press Council is unable to say that its publication was improper.

THE COMPLAINT AGAINST OINK! IS REJECTED."

CLEVER OINK!

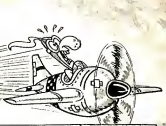

NEXT: JANICE AND JOHN (and MUMMY!) GO TO THE DIVORCE COURTS . . .

daddy gets well, and runs off with a nurse!

LASHIE the WONDER PIG

SCRIPT:
TONY HUSBAND
SET:
OWEN SINCLAIR

LASHIE THE WONDER PIG WAS MINDING THE FLOCK WITH HIS MASTER.

HIS MASTER OVERBALANCED AND FELL INTO A PIT. AS HE DID SO, LASHIE HEARD A DEAFENING CRACK.

THE DAM WAS BREAKING UP. HE HAD TO LEAVE HIS MASTER AND WARN THE VILLAGE OF KIRKNOONY, WHICH LAY IN THE VALLEY OF THE DAM.

NEAR THE VILLAGE HE SAW A SIGN WHICH GAVE HIM AN IDEA.

BE VERY CAREFUL. AVALANCHE

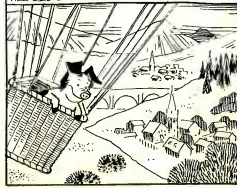

FOR HIS IDEA TO WORK HE'D NEED SOME ASSISTANCE FROM ONE OF THE GIANT BALLOONS...

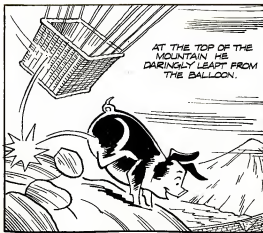

LEAPING INTO THE BALLOON.

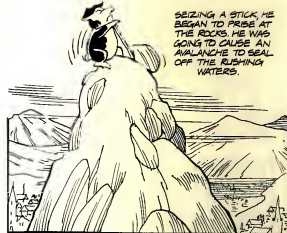

HE SET OFF TOWARDS THE TOP OF THE MOUNTAIN THAT OVERSHADOWED THE DAM AND THE VILLAGES OF KIRKNOONY AND KIRKCOONY.

AT THE TOP OF THE MOUNTAIN HE DARINGLY LEAPT FROM THE BALLOON.

SEIZING A STICK, HE BEGAN TO PRIZE AT THE ROCKS. HE WAS GOING TO CAUSE AN AVALANCHE TO SEAL OFF THE RUSHING WATERS.

BUT THE STICK SNAPPED. HE FELL BACKWARDS.

HE HAD CREATED AN AVALANCHE, BUT ON THE WRONG SIDE OF THE MOUNTAIN....

WHICH DESTROYED THE VILLAGE OF KIRKCOONY (MEANWHILE THE DAM BURST, DESTROYING THE VILLAGE OF KIRKNOONY).

LASHIE WENT BACK TO HIS MASTER...
